

The Board of Trustees of Ringwood Public Library announces the resignation of Elise Bedder, Library Director, effective March 8, 2019.

For Immediate Release
Feb.15, 2019

The Board of Trustees recognizes the twelve and a half years of service Elise Bedder has given our Public Library. For over two years, Ms. Bedder has been the Director of the Library and has worked with staff, contractors and vendors to oversee and finalize development and implementation of the new website, construction of the new walkway, and new Audio Visual system. Ms. Bedder has been instrumental in increasing programming and developing a staff that support and serve our community. The Board of Trustees thanks Ms. Bedder for her years of service to the Library and the Ringwood Community and wishes her well in her future endeavors.

The volunteer Board of Trustees asks for community support during this period as we search for a new Director.

The Board of Trustees will work closely with Library staff to ensure the continued excellent service and programming at the Ringwood Public Library. The Board will continue to work and take action according to the new Strategic Plan and fulfill goals and projects developed with input from the community

We join the staff of Ringwood Public Library and the Ringwood community in wishing Elise Bedder the best in health, happiness and future fulfillment.
